

The court has carefully reviewed this motion. It is unclear exactly what relief defendant seeks by filing this motion. However, the court notes that many of the issues addressed may be presented on appeal, after final judgment is entered, but are not properly raised at this time. Furthermore, were this court to construe defendant's motion as a motion for a new trial, the motion is untimely as it is not grounded on newly discovered evidence and was not filed within 14 days of the jury's verdict. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 33(b)(2) ("Any motion for a new trial grounded on any reason other than newly discovered evidence must be filed within 14 days after the verdict or finding of guilty.").

For the foregoing reasons, defendant's motion [DE #1881] is DENIED.

This 8th day of May 2012.
